RADIO RECORDING STUDIO/AUDIO PRODUCTION INTERN for 2016
Unpaid. Academic Credit Available.

The Opportunity:

Work closely with experienced studio engineers, award-winning producers, professional radio hosts and voice-over talent on producing:

- weekly 30-minute radio programs heard by 6 million listeners
- radio spots and promos
- audio new releases and custom news feeds
- podcasts
- national radio media tours

Blog and post on our websites and social media pages.

Requirements:

We are looking for juniors, seniors or recent grads who live, work or go to school in the Chicago area. Interns usually work 2 days (15 hrs) per week, for 12 weeks, from 9am-5pm, but there is flexibility in the schedule. Most interns work June through August, but some spots may be available in Fall and Spring semesters as well.

- Excellent verbal/written communication skills
- Strong interest in radio, journalism, audio editing and studio production
- Some practical recording studio experience, familiarity with ProTools and audio software
- Bright, hard-working self-starter with professional demeanor

How To Apply

Fill out the application form on our website (go to the on the Internships page under About). Be sure to attach your resume, links to your audio demo or samples of your work, and a few paragraphs of introduction. Tell us about your relevant coursework, projects, experience, what you'd like to learn, future plans, and what days/times work best.

MTC is an award-winning producer of two public affairs programs: Radio Health Journal and Viewpoints, heard each week on iTunes, Stitcher and over 800 radio stations nationwide. We seek interns who want to work side by side with industry experts to gain real-world experience in writing, editing, blogging, social media, communications, marketing and broadcast media in a close-knit, casual working environment with a team of eight. Our interns have gone on to work for NPR's All Things Considered, KNX-AM Los Angeles, WAND-TV, ESPN, ABC News, Disney and us.
